Changes to our Privacy Notice

We keep our Privacy Notice under regular review. This Privacy Notice was last updated on 23rd January 2023. Historic versions can be obtained by contacting us.

Use of AI and Automated Decision Making

We may use your data in AI and automated decision-making systems as a legitimate interest for re-engagement purposes to review your existing mortgage and source suitable new products, to confirm your identity, to validate documents you provide, and to assess the affordability of products based upon your requirements. However please note that currently no automated decisions are made using such systems that have a legal or similar effect on clients, and all results are reviewed by advisers or administrative staff. If you require any further information about this data processing please contact data.protection@mab.org.uk

Marketing communications

You will also have the choice to opt-in to receiving other related marketing information and related products and services. You can opt-out of receiving these types of communications at any time by contacting our Compliance team at compliance@mab.org.uk or by clicking on the relevant link in email communications you receive from us.

However please note that your personal information will not be passed to any third-party organisation for marketing purposes.

Use of AI and Automated Decision Making

We may use your data in AI and automated decision-making systems as a legitimate interest for re-engagement purposes to review your existing mortgage and source suitable new products, to confirm your identity, to validate documents you provide, and to assess the affordability of products based upon your requirements. If you do not wish your data to be used by such systems, please notify us at data.protection@mab.org.uk

Data Security

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. We also limit access to your personal data to only those Coreco staff, advisers, business partners and suppliers who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

Cookies

When using our website, you can set your browser to refuse all or some browser cookies, or to alert you when websites set or access cookies. If you disable or refuse cookies, please note that some parts of this website may become inaccessible or not function properly.

Website Third-party links

Coreco's website may include links to third-party websites, plug-ins and applications. Clicking on those links or enabling those connections may allow third parties to collect or share data about you. We do not control these third-party websites and are not responsible for their privacy statements. When you leave our website, we encourage you to read the privacy notice of every website you visit.

Sharing of personal data outside of the United Kingdom

Some of our external suppliers are based overseas so their processing of your personal data will involve a transfer of data outside of the UK. In such cases data is transferred under conditions to provide protection to personal data equivalent to UK Data Protection standards. This includes the use of standard contractual clauses in contracts with external suppliers in order to provide the same level of protection for personal data as it has in the UK.

Who we disclose personal data to

Type of Recipient	Reason
Within our network	Depending on your requirements, it may be necessary to share your personal data with other firms within our network of specialist product providers (as appointed representatives of Mortgage Advice Bureau) in order for suitably qualified advisers to source relevant products and services or to re-engage with existing clients.
Lenders and protection product suppliers	To source and submit applications in order to conclude the contract for the mortgage/protection application and the ongoing servicing of these contracts, and to support quality checks and ensure full disclosure of information to lenders and protection providers
Financial Institutions	To source your bank account information via Open Banking with your consent
External Suppliers	Specialist IT system providers to deliver our service to you (including sourcing of products, providing continuing advice, sharing of documentation, payment processing, informing you about relevant products and services, service & advice quality checking and improvements, and to request feedback on customer service standards). It may also be necessary to share your personal information with non-affiliated companies who perform support services on our behalf including those that provide professional, legal or accounting advice to Coreco.
Housing Associations / Registered Providers	If applicable, to confirm your identity / proof of deposit to the Housing Association / Registered Provider with whom you are interacting, to provide updates on the progress of your application, and to provide a copy of the mortgage offer to support your application.
Solicitors / Conveyancers	To update the firm of solicitors / conveyancers with whom you are interacting about the progress of your application and confirm your identity / proof of deposit.
Estate Agents / new home builders	To update the firm of mortgage / protection advisers, estate agents and home builders with whom you are interacting about the results of affordability checks and progress of your application.
ID verification & Licensed Credit Agencies	For the purposes of confirming your identity to comply with Anti Money Laundering requirements (GB Group data processing information can be found at https://www.gbgplc.com/en/legal-and-regulatory/products-services-privacy-policy/); and to perform a credit assessment to assess your eligibility; to obtain a Lenders Decision In Principle; and as part of a full application.
Regulators	Sharing information may be necessary to fulfil our legal obligations as a regulated profession, for example with the Financial Conduct Authority, to verify your identity and comply with Anti Money Laundering legislation, and otherwise co-operate with law enforcement, legal proceedings or regulatory authorities.

Others	Third parties to whom we may choose to sell, transfer or merge parts of our business or our assets. Alternatively, we may seek to acquire other businesses, then the new owners may use your personal data in the same way as set out in this privacy notice.

These companies are required to ensure appropriate security measures are in place and maintain the confidentiality of your personal data, and to use your personal data only in the course of providing such services and in accordance with Coreco instructions.

How long is your personal data retained?

Purpose of processing	Retention
Enquiry data obtained from third parties that do not result in an application	2 years from the date the enquiry was received from the introducer
Affordability assessments for new build property	2 years from Decision in Principle if affordability check does not proceed to a full mortgage application
My Mortgage Account portal accounts	2 years from date of last login if not proceeded to full application
Withdrawn, stalled, incomplete failed mortgage/protection applications	2 years from the date the latest application was started, or 6 years from the application submitted date if application was submitted and subsequently rejected or from creation date if advice has been provided but not pursued
Successful mortgage	For the full mortgage or protection policy term plus a further 6 years, or for a period of 30 years for historical cases of the original term is not recorded

Your legal rights regarding your personal data

After these retention periods if there is no other on-going client relationship your personal data will either be securely deleted or anonymised so that it can be used for statistical purposes but without any method of identifying you individually.

You have the right to:

- Request access to your personal data. This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.
- Request correction of the personal data. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate data corrected, though we may need to verify the accuracy of the new data you provide to us.
- Request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You can also ask us to delete your personal data where you have successfully objected to the processing (see below), where we may have processed your information unlawfully or where we are required to erase your personal data to comply with local law. Note, however, that we may not always be able to delete the data for specific legal reasons which will be notified to you, if applicable, at the time of your request.

- Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground as you feel it impacts on your fundamental rights and freedoms. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes. In some cases, we may demonstrate that we have compelling legitimate grounds to process your information which override your rights and freedoms.
- Request restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of your personal data in the following scenarios: (a) if you want us to establish the data's accuracy; (b) where our use of the data is unlawful but you do not want us to erase it; (c) where you need us to hold the data even if we no longer require it as you need it to establish, exercise or defend legal claims; or (d) you have objected to our use of your data but we need to verify whether we have overriding legitimate grounds to use it.
- Request the transfer of your personal data to you or to a third party. We will provide to you, or a third party you have chosen, your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format. Note that this right only applies to automated information which you initially provided consent for us to use or where we used the information to perform a contract with you.
- Withdraw consent at any time where we are relying on consent to process your personal data. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent. If you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide certain products or services to you. We will advise you if this is the case at the time you withdraw your consent.

Questions

If you have any questions or complaints relating to how we use your personal data, or if you wish to exercise any of your rights regarding your personal data, please contact Hayley-Louise O'Reilly, by emailing Hayleylouise.Oreilly@coreco.co.uk or by writing to us. We will respond to you as soon as is possible. The length of time will depend on the type and complexity of the request, but you will receive a response no later than one month from the initial request.

What if I am still not satisfied?

If you are not satisfied with how Coreco has responded to your enquiry, you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO), who is the regulator for data protection in the United Kingdom.
